- Q This was the second deed in the strew cenveyance you have just spoken about?
 - A Ves.
- O And this straw transaction took place on the advice of your attorney at that time?
 - A Yes.
 - Q And who would that have been, sir?
 - A Robert E. Clapp, Jr.
- Q I show you what is marked Complainant's Exhibit No. 3 in this case. That purports to be a deed from Poster H. Blickenstaff and Matilda V. Blickenstaff, his wife, unto Alva F. Rice and Mattie M. Rice, his wife. This, again, is a certified copy, certified by the Clerk of the Circuit Court, Mr. Ellis C. Wachter, bearing the date 11th day of September, 1939. Would you look at this copy, sir, and tell me if you recegnise the original of which it is a copy?
 - A Yes.
 - Q You do recognize that?
 - A Yes.
- Q Would you explain the circumstances surrounding this document?
- A The circumstances were at that time that Mr. Rice here Alva Rice came to me and asked me if I wanted to sell the property. I said I wanted to get rid of it. He said, "What would you ask?" I said, $500. I figured it was I had spent that much in my time and effort and money to own the property, and hadn't gotten anything back. Mr. Rice said at that time, "I'll give you $400.
 I'll give you $300 and held $100 for one year. If no complaints come in I will reimburse you for the $100 at the end of the year."
- Q Then after the payment of the sum of $300 you then transferred the preparty to Mr. Alva Rice the one who is sitting here to-day?
 - A That's right.
